Agenda

1. PRESENTATIONS

1. Jill Stewart, Coalition to Preserve LA, Update on SB 50 and with the entry of Zev Yaroslavsky into the fight against Senate Bill 50 changes the math on Sacramento's unprecedented bid to end single-family zoning statewide and raze neighborhoods to build rental towers and luxury fourplexes.

2. LEGISLATIVE

1. The Los Angeles Neighborhood Council Coalition (LANCC) (XXXXXX Neighborhood Council) strongly supports CF 19-0002-S38 which supports OPPOSITION to SB 50 (Wiener), which would allow the construction of higher-density multi-family housing developments near major transit stops that are out of compliance with local land use regulations and procedures. The Los Angeles Neighborhood Council Coalition (LANCC) (XXXXXX Neighborhood Council) strongly OPPOSES the language “unless amended to exclude the City of Los Angeles from its provisions and include living wage provisions and protections for construction workers.” All cities should be fighting together to stop SB 50.
2. The Los Angeles Neighborhood Council Coalition (LANCC) (XXXXXX Neighborhood Council) strongly OPPOSES Measure EE because LAUSD has not exhausted other sources of funding and has failed to implement basic reforms recommended in 2015 by the Independent Financial Review Panel that was commissioned by Superintendent Ramone Cortines. Another source of funds is from “right sizing” the District’s bloated bureaucracy that has increased by 20% despite a 33% drop in the student body. The Independent Financial Review Panel’s chief recommendation was that staff be cut to adjust to declining enrollment. “The district’s loss of 100,000 students would indicate that the district staff would need to be reduced by about 10,000 staff, including administrators, classified and certificated personnel, for a savings of about $500 million per year.”
3. The Los Angeles Neighborhood Council Coalition (LANCC) (XXXXXX Neighborhood Council) has concerns that UCLA is possibly avoiding paying transient occupancy tax (TOT) to the City of Los Angeles according to a Daily Bruin article. We ask that Controller Ron Galperin investigate the allegations and set the record straight.
